

Mono Earphone

Museum audio handset to be held close to the ear

Endless audio streaming possibilities

The Mono earphone is used like a headphone to listen to music or messages from an audio or video player.

It allows a high quality listening music without being disturbed by the surrounding noises.

Its design has been studied to perfectly integrate all public spaces. Practical and handy, it can be posed horizontally on a piece of furniture or vertically on a support.

Option: Stand and jack adapter

USE CASES:

- In museums and shows, create interactive and original audio kiosks
- Offer discreet solution to listen your music and messages
- Create some kiosks in library, hall, reception
- Deliver audio tracks from CD / DVD in your point of sales
- Propose to visitors, comments, sound effects, messages in all spaces

Caractéristiques

- Bandwidth: 50Hz – 18kHz
 - Bandwidth: 50Hz – 18kHz
 - Maximum audio power: 250mw
 - Material: grey anthracite aluminium
 - Loudspeaker protection: moulded black rubber
 - Audio electric rubber cable of 6mm diameter and 1.50m of length
 - Sheathing start: reinforced with a cable guide
 - Colours: available in black and grey
 - Weight : 250g
 - Size: 150mm length, 70mm width and 50mm thickness
-

Sur demande

- Different audio output connectors
 - Headphone audio amplifier
 - Internal MP3 player
-